In the Midst of a Great Farming Area, We . . .

In organizing this '62-'63 CARDINAL for you we have tried to present a diary of the year's happenings that will preserve lasting memories for all of those who attended CPHS this year.

As you turn its pages in years to come, we hope this annual will provide you with a source of enjoyment and entertainment as you reflect upon your high school activities, your plans, and your dreams.

Whatever happens in the future and wherever you are 10, 20, 50 years from now, you can always turn back to this CARDINAL for an accurate picture of the "good old days" of 1962-'63.

Dedication

We dedicate this 1962-'63 CARDINAL to Kendra Kay Hasselbring, our friend and classmate. In her two and one-half years of high school, she was an active member of chorus, GAA, Commercial Club, FHA, and of her class. Our hearts felt a genuine loss and sadness at her early and unusual death. Her memory will remain with us in years to come.

To the Class of 1963:

Congratulations on a fine book of the pictorial history of your past four years.

Yours has been an exceptionally fine class and as you go forth from your high school, we would like to express our gratitude for having had the opportunity of working with you during the past few years. We sincerely hope we have been able to help you during this time you have been with us.

May we wish for the greatest possible success for each member of this class. Our best wishes and hopes go forward with you.

Sincerely yours

C. L. Watson

The Senior Class found its first opportunity for doing work right away in September--selling ads for the CARDINAL. They presented "Murder Comes in 3's" on November 2 and the following night had a chicken supper. W.W.W., a representative of Boersma Tours, talked to the class giving them an idea what the Senior Trip would be like. On March 9 the Seniors tried something new at CPHS, a fish fry. During April they were kept busy getting ready for the trip and graduation, which ended their high school life on May 24.

Junior Hop: And away we go!

The Junior Class began their money-making projects right away by selling stationery. They also sold apples and pop at basketball games. In November and January they had roller skating parties, and the Christmas party they had in the English room will probably be remembered for a long time. Their supper in February was successful as was their play "Headin' for a Weddin'" in April. Of course, the Prom was probably the most beautiful event of the year.

The Sophomore Class came in second on the magazine sales. On February 22, they had a Sock Hop after the last basketball game. The Freshman Class ranked third in magazine sales in the fall. They profited well from a spaghetti supper in January and also held cake raffles at the Frosh-Soph tournament. They bought tins of candy which they sold at games and during the noon hour. In February they had a skating party at the Hoopeston Skating Rink.

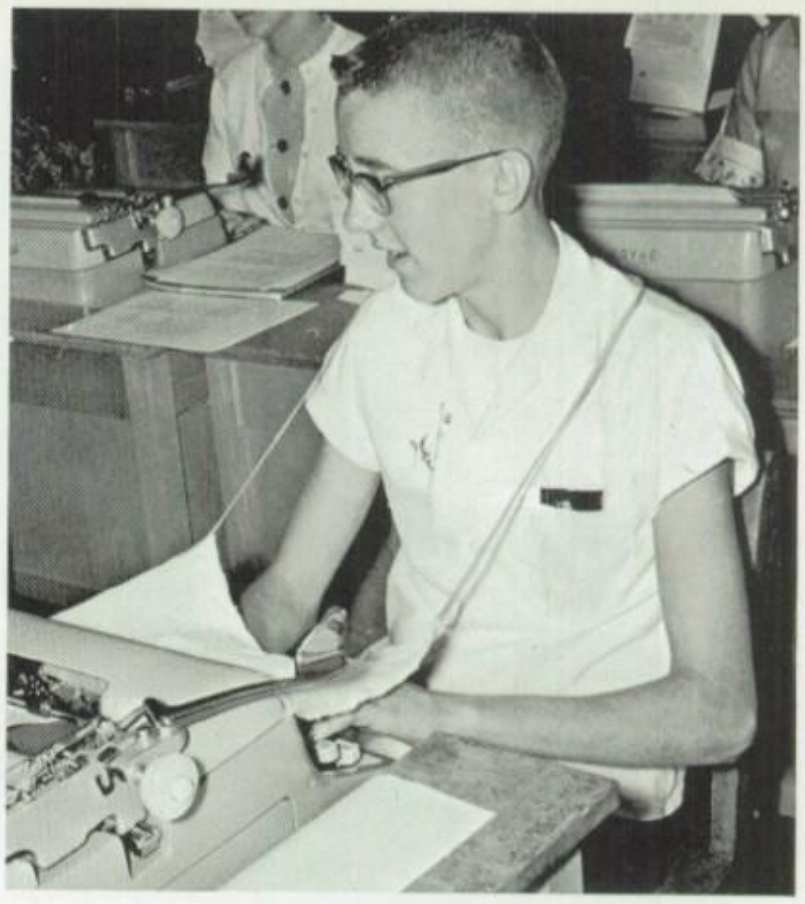
Kids in the Classroom

The Berlin Wall?



No fair peeking!

Does she or doesn't she?

Another stale joke!

During the course of the year, two weeks were set aside, to enable two classes, Ag IV and Home Ec. IV, to exchange and further their knowledge at something they, as individuals, were not very acquainted with. During this two week period, the boys baked, sewed, and ate, while the girls pounded nails and sawed boards. It proved quite interesting.

Dish 'em up, boys!

Don't cut too deep!

Think they will get it in orbit?

The Halloween party the Student Council held in October started out with a judging of the costumes. The Freshmen were initiated later as well as dunked when they bobbed for apples. Refreshments and a dance rounded things out. The Council also took it upon themselves to help School Spirit along and had a pep rally one evening in November. Eldon Baron's band played at the Christmas Dance which the Student Council sponsored again this year. Of course, when they took over for a week in April, there were quite a few changes around the school.

The National Honor Society admits only those students who are outstanding in the categories of Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character. A student must have at least a 3.5 average on a 4.0 basis to be considered for this high honor.

COMMERCIAL CLUB OFFICERS

One of the most important things accomplished by the Commercial Club this year was a revision in one of the articles of their Constitution, which limited the membership of the club to those who were really interested in it. At one of the meetings an insurance agent discussed the basic principles of insurance as well as several basic plans that could be followed in buying it. A representative of the Illinois Commercial College lead the organization along the Roadway to Success at another meeting. The Club also provided its own program at a meeting with a typing contest.

The Commercial Club's first typing contest.

The chapter started the year with a summer meeting in July. During the summer they also saw a major league baseball game in Chicago. Mr. Meyer and the officers attended the National Convention in Kansas City in October.

The chapter, along with the F.H.A., sponsored a chicken barbecue on October 12. In November, the green hands were initiated and the present green hands raised to chapter farmers. The chapter also had a pest contest from December 1 to March 1.

On March 5, the state farmers were named. Bill Maul and Danny Hinkle were among the happy people. Bill was also runner-up for the Star Farmer Degree.

The annual parent-son banquet was held on March 20. Awards were presented and colored slides were shown of each boys' farming program.

The final event of the year was held on April 19. This was the Plowboy Prom and was opened to all FFA boys and their dates.

The F.H.A. is an organization to promote family living. New members were formally initiated on September 24. On October 12 they worked with the F.F.A. to put on a chicken barbecue. Daddy-Date Night, which was held November 17, was one of the favorite activities of the club. Classrooms took on a new look the week before Christmas when the members decorated them with articles they had brought from home. F.H.A. week, March 31 to April 6, brought many unusual changes to the high school. In April, each member brought a little friend to an Easter party and in May each one brought their mothers to a Dessert. The Dessert marked the end of a busy year for the F.H.A.

The first activity of the G.A.A. this year was softball, which was followed by bowling. The ten bowlers with the highest averages participated in a state tournament in February. Winter activities included basketball, volleyball, and badminton. In the spring they finished softball and also liked the special event and party they had in May which was one of the highlights of the year.

"I'm surrounded by beauty"

November 9, 1962, will be a memorable night for some people, because this was the night the Seniors presented "Murder Comes in Threes." The stage crew did its part to perfection - which contributed greatly to the success of the play. The cast really enjoyed working with Mr. Nelson.

Seniors at work!

Stick 'em up, buster!

To jail you go!

Headin' for a Weddin'

The Junior class play, held on April 26 was howling success. "Headin' for a Weddin'" will be remembered for a long time not only by the Juniors, but also by everyone who saw this hillbilly comedy.
